Discretionary Fund

- Students should maintain a minimum of 90% attendance to timetabled lessons and tutorials in order to receive payment from this fund.
- An average of 85 – 90% attendance may give 50% of the payment due until such a time that attendance improves.
- Students with less than 85% will forgo any payment.
- The allocation and spending of the Bursary Fund is subject to official audit and the school and students may be asked to show for what educational purposes the money allocated has been used.

Decisions

- Decisions about the allocation of funds will rest with the Senior Leadership Team of the school
- A panel will be set up consisting of the Head Teacher and Governors to consider any appeals.
- Appeals should be made in writing within five working days of a decision being issued.

The Governing Body will review and update as appropriate the Bursary Fund Policy on an annual basis, depending on prevailing Government policies and any local agreements.
